

Civility Training- General

Civility International <http://civilityinternational.com/products-services/>

The screenshot shows the website for Civility International. The navigation menu includes: About, Blog, Civility Training | Workshops, Image Consulting, Events, Resources, Local Likes!, Media, and Contact. The breadcrumb trail is Home > Civility Training | Workshops. The main heading is "Civility Training | Workshops". Below this, a text block states: "Civility International's Penelope Paik provides Keynote presentations, Training, Workshops and more. Customized topics can be designed in accordance with client needs." To the right is a search bar with a "Search" button. Below the search bar is a "Recent Posts" section with three items: "Don't Discount the Power of your Words", "The Quality of our Lives", and "3 Things in Human Life are Important." Below these are two bullet points: "Resume preparation and review, including cover letters." and "Interview Preparation—includes professional attire, what to do before the interview, follow up, and interview techniques." The footer of the browser window shows the time as 11:21 PM on 10/20/2015.

International Civility Trainers' Consortium

<http://www.internationalcivilitytrainer.com/>

The screenshot shows the website for the International Civility Trainers' Consortium (ICTC). The navigation menu includes: Email the Consortium | 1-204-996-4792 | Master Trainers. The main heading is "Welcome to the International Civility Trainers' Consortium!". To the left is the ICTC logo, which features a globe and the text "Esse Quam Videri". Below the logo is the motto "Esse Quam Videri - 'To Be, Rather Than To Seem'...". To the right is a large image of a globe with a golden ring around it. Below the globe is a yellow star with the text "Become a Civility Trainer Today" and "Self Study Business Trainer Program". Below the globe is a section titled "Our Vision...Our Mission...Our Mandate..." with the text: "ICTC's mandate to bring together practicing civility experts from all over the world to collaborate, exchange ideas, consult, and coach each other towards building a comprehensive resource of current, relevant, and culturally-correct civility training tools and curriculum that is applicable world-wide." Below this are two sections: "General Membership Information" and "Master Membership Information". The footer of the browser window shows the time as 11:21 PM on 10/20/2015.

Benet Davetian- Author, History of Civility

<http://www.keynotespeakerscanada.ca/speaker/benet-davetian>

The screenshot shows a web browser window displaying a speaker profile for Benet Davetian. The browser's address bar shows the URL <http://www.keynotespeakerscanada.ca/speaker/benet-davetian>. The website has a green and white color scheme. At the top, there is a navigation menu with links for "About Us", "Video Showcase", "Speaker Submission", "Bookstore", and "Contact Us". On the left side, there is a portrait of Benet Davetian, a middle-aged man with a beard. Below the portrait are four orange buttons: "Book this Speaker", "Reserve Speaker", "Request more info", and "Watch Video". To the right of the portrait, the text reads: BENET DAVETIAN
Former Chair and associate professor in the Department of Sociology and Anthropology at the University of PEI, Director of the Civility Institute, Author. Below this, there are two paragraphs of text describing his background and expertise. On the far right, there is a search section with four dropdown menus: "Canadian Industry Experts", "Canadians in Sport", "Canadian Entertainers", and "Bilingual Speakers", each with a "-- Search --" button. Below these are two buttons: "Search by Province" and "Search all speakers". The browser's taskbar at the bottom shows various application icons and the system clock.

Howard County Community Initiative

http://www.urbanlibraries.org/choose-civility--a-community-wide-campaign-innovation-824.php?page_id=167

The screenshot shows a web browser window displaying the "Choose Civility" website for Howard County, MD. The browser's address bar shows the URL <http://www.choosecivility.org>. The website has a green and white color scheme. At the top, there is a navigation menu with links for "RSS Feeds" and "Contact Us". The main header features a stylized logo of a tree and the text "Choose Civility HOWARD COUNTY, MD". Below the header, there is a section titled "Faces of Civility" with three small images showing people engaged in community activities. On the left side, there is a "Main Menu" with a list of links: "Home", "About Us", "Ongoing Activities", "Tools and Materials", "Who Is Involved", "Become Involved", and "Upcoming Events". To the right of the menu, there is a section titled "Choose Civility" with a paragraph of text describing the initiative. Below this, there is a section titled "Get Involved!" with a paragraph of text and a link to "Become Involved". The browser's taskbar at the bottom shows various application icons and the system clock.

http://www.urbaninstitute.org/choose-civility-4-com... | speaking on civility in the com... | Choose Civility, a Commu...

McAfee

Top Innovators
Publications

2013 Innovations

Civic & Community Engagement

Collections

Customer Experience

Economic & Workforce Engagement

Health, Wellness & Safety

Operations

Organizational Change & Strategic Management

Positioning the Library

Leading Learning

Serving Communities in Crisis

← BACK TO CIVIC & COMMUNITY ENGAGEMENT

CHOOSE CIVILITY, A COMMUNITY-WIDE CAMPAIGN

Howard County Library System, MD

Go to Website | Watch Video

Innovation Summary

A community-wide initiative led by Howard County Library System, Choose Civility aims to enhance respect, empathy, consideration and tolerance through an initiative with more than 100 partners comprising government, nonprofits, and businesses. Libraries, schools, and cities across the country (from Maine to Oregon to Florida) are joining the civility movement.

Innovation Leader: Christie Lassen, Director of Public Relations, christie.lassen@hclibrary.org

Problem Statement

11:42 PM
10/20/13